

Tjeda A. Tuttle

December 27, 2020

Tjeda A. Tuttle, 42, of Thomas Mock Rd. passed Sunday, December 27, 2020 at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center.

A private service will be held on Sunday. Public viewing will be Saturday from 2-5pm at Roberts Funeral Service.

Events

JAN Public Viewing 02:00PM - 05:00PM

2

Roberts Funeral Service (Lexington)

701 North Main Street, Lexington, NC, US, 27292

Comments

“ It's unbelievable that you're gone but I accept it. I miss you so much. To think on how the Lord allowed me to see you in the early hours of that day, gives me comfort. You were smiling, laughing, and being your usual self. You're one of those people that are supposed to live forever! However, you are; in eternity. I hope you've met up with Granny and Papaw in Heaven and you all are having a great time. Hug my boys for me. Family outings won't be the same without you TJ.

I love you cousin and sleep well,

Incosmea

Incosmea Thomas - January 01 at 04:27 PM

“ To the Tuttle family,

May God continue to bless and protect you, during these times.
Keep your hands in God's unchanging hands.

Be Blessed,
Toni Leak Sr

Toni Leak - January 01 at 01:01 PM

“ My heart and love goes out to Shelia,Chris Tuttle and Family. I was very heartbroken when I heard the passing of my cut up buddy TJ. She was a very sweet kindhearted loveable person. She was that person when ever you seen her she always had that smile that brighten everyone’s day you never heard anything bad out of her but when we seen each other we will always start fussing at each other but when we was leaving she would always say to me. I love you Aton and I would say love you to TJ. Now I will not get to hear that anymore but I thank God for the memories that we had. She will truly be missed.I want to say to Shelia, Chris and the family. Better Days are coming.Love each and everyone of y’all.

Aton Thomas - January 01 at 09:24 AM

“ Shanna and Chris I am so sorry for your loss. I just wanna send prayers, hugs, and condolences to you and your family. This has got to be such a difficult time for you all, but we know that God has a reason for plucking the beautiful flowers he has grown. TJ served her purpose here on earth and did all that he wanted her to do. I am sure she loved, encouraged, hugged, and made everyone around her feel like a million dollars. Her soul is at rest and you can believe that she will be watching over all of you from her beautiful home in Heaven. I know your hearts are heavy, but every time you think of her think of a good time and smile. I promise you the good memories will help get you through the rough moments until you see her again in Heaven.

Continued Prayers.....

Lisa Burns- North Davidson Family Medicine

Lisa Burns - December 31, 2020 at 03:09 PM